

Cassandra Cuffee-Graves Deputy Comptroller for Human Capital

Cassandra Cuffee-Graves is the Deputy Comptroller for Human Capital in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

In this role, Ms. Cuffee-Graves will serve as policy advisor and provide executive leadership and direction on human capital management, compensation and benefits programs, accountability, human resources information systems, strategic recruitment, continuing education management, human resources operations, employment policy, and labor and employee relations. She will also ensure the OCC meets federal government statutory, regulatory, and policy requirements. She assumed this role in April 2018.

Prior to joining the OCC, Ms. Cuffee-Graves served as Chief Human Capital Officer for the U.S. Department of Education. Her previous positions include Executive Director of Human Resources Operations at U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and as Section Chief of the Human Resources Management Section at the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Ms. Graves earned a bachelor of science degree from Virginia State University in marketing and management.

