Doing much business on the internet, I feel strongly that we need to effect a "Do Not E-Mail" list. Upon opening my email daily, I find too much spam and pornography along with viruses which infect our whole office network. Using this as a business tool, I absolutely need to be on the proposed list. Also, personally, I am not technologically savvy enough to prevent spam and viruses from bogging down and infecting my home computers. Again, this is a necessity for me in saving both time and money which are two precious items to me. I am a mother of 5, 4 college-age, a business woman, Realtor, and my husband is a CPA and our need for this is huge. Thank you for listening to my opinion. - Sincerely, Victoria Williams
