

Department of the Treasury
Office of Thrift Supervision

Transmittal

September 17, 1990

Number 007

Attached is the final regulation containing standards for appraisals of real estate used as collateral for loans by thrift institutions. The rule requires that appraisals be done according to uniform standards by state-certified or state-licensed appraisers for real estate-related transactions of more than $50,000. The regulation is the same as those adopted by other federal financial institutions regulatory agencies.

Director
Office of Thrift Supervision