

Beth Dugan Deputy Comptroller for Large Bank Supervision

Beth Dugan is a Deputy Comptroller for Large Bank Supervision at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

In this position, Ms. Dugan is one of four deputy comptrollers overseeing the supervision of the OCC's large bank portfolio. She assumed these duties in August 2019 and reports to the Senior Deputy Comptroller for Large Bank Supervision.

Prior to this role, Ms. Dugan served as the Deputy Comptroller for Operational Risk and oversaw policy and examination procedures development addressing operational risk, bank information technology, cybersecurity, critical infrastructure resilience, payments systems, and corporate and risk governance. She also oversaw the OCC's supervision of significant service providers as part of an interagency supervision program.

Throughout her career at the OCC, Ms. Dugan has held a variety of leadership roles in supervising large complex financial institutions, as well as midsize and community banks and technology service providers. She has significant examination experience in technology, operations, audit, Basel II, enterprise governance, systems integration, and credit, capital markets, and trading platforms. Ms. Dugan is a commissioned National Bank Examiner and Certified Information Systems Auditor.

Ms. Dugan joined the OCC in West Virginia where she assisted in supervising all aspects of community and mid-size national banks throughout the southeastern and mid-Atlantic region. She holds a bachelor of arts in English and a master of business administration from West Virginia University.

