

Kathy K. Murphy
Senior Deputy Comptroller for Management and Chief Financial Officer

Kathy K. Murphy is the Senior Deputy Comptroller for Management and Chief Financial Officer at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

In this role, Ms. Murphy is responsible for the OCC's departments of financial management, human capital (including continuing education), leadership, executive and organizational development, administrative operations, and information technology. She took on her current duties in 2014.

From 2009 to 2014, as Deputy Comptroller and Chief Accountant, Ms. Murphy was the OCC's authoritative source on bank accounting and financial reporting, providing counsel to examiners, the banking industry, and the accounting profession. She also represented the OCC on the FFIEC's Reports Task Force and the Accounting Expert Group of the Basel Committee on Bank Supervision.

Ms. Murphy joined the OCC in 2002 after serving in public accounting with two large national accounting firms. She graduated in 1997 from the University of Maryland with bachelor's degrees in accountancy and finance. She is also a certified public accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
